

June 2016 MAI-CoC Webinar
Motivational Interviewing
Presenter Bio

Adrienne C. Lindsey, MA, DBH
Center for Applied Behavioral Health Policy
College of Public Service and Community Solutions
Arizona State University

Dr. Adrienne Lindsey serves as a senior research specialist for the Arizona State University (ASU) Center for Applied Behavioral Health Policy, with faculty affiliate appointments in the ASU Schools of Criminal Justice, Social Work, and Behavioral Health. Adrienne earned her Doctorate in Behavioral Health (DBH) from ASU after obtaining a Master of Arts in Psychology from Northwest University, and a bachelor's degree in 2004 from the University of Washington. Dr. Lindsey is a member of the international Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT). Dr. Lindsey is a subject matter expert in the areas of Motivational Interviewing, Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT), and the Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT) model. Much of Dr. Lindsey's research focuses on the implementation of evidence-based practices within inter-agency systems of care and inter-professional settings.