

Patricia Tucker, MBA. Senior Program Associate at AHP, is an experienced trainer and TA provider with special expertise in supportive housing, employment, and other issues that affect people with HIV/AIDS and those who have experienced domestic violence. Based in AHP's Chicago office, Ms. Tucker provides TA and training to providers throughout the country in the following evidence-based practices: supported employment, permanent supportive housing, harm reduction, case management, and Motivational Interviewing. In addition, Ms. Tucker has conducted assessments of programs around the country providing supported employment and permanent supportive housing to determine whether those programs meet fidelity. Ms. Tucker also created and delivers curriculum on client recovery and self-sufficiency to agencies that provide HIV/AIDS and domestic violence services to vulnerable populations. She also trains and provides TA on cross-collaboration and systems integration. Prior to joining AHP, Ms. Tucker oversaw Ryan White-funded housing programs that provided health and financial resources to people with HIV/AIDS. She trained and supervised over 150 staff who delivered advocacy, case management, and benefits assistance services to people who were victims of domestic violence and those with HIV/AIDS.
